

RUTLISH SCHOOL RE-UNION MAJORS ON NORMAN SEARCH

A 50 year re-union, being organized by the 1957 Rutlish Grammar School intake, has led to an extensive search for fellow pupils. Contact has been made with eighty seven of the initial one hundred and seventeen schoolboys by scanning the many data bases available and networking with the Old Rutlishians membership list - and the hunt is on for the rest

There are still twenty five classmates unaccounted for, with five sadly deceased, and top of re-union organiser Trevor Musk's list is Peter Norman who went to Merton Abbey Primary School with him. He has 'dug up' three clues to date in that Peter's Dad, Mr. E. L. Norman, was the Head at Merton Abbey Primary School when both were there, Peter's family lived in Rosendale Road, West Dulwich and Peter joined an insurance company with 'north' or 'northern' in its name, as an actuary student in 1966. Can any readers offer further clues to Peter's whereabouts?

Trevor would also appreciate information on the following names if any readers know their whereabouts

The re-union is building up to be a big success with fifty of those contacted wanting to attend with many more 'probables' likely to swell numbers further. It is to take place on Saturday 1st September, 2007 preceded by a round of golf on the Friday and appropriately the venue will be the Old Rutlishians Clubhouse in Poplar Road South, Morden
